

ARKEES AI – Analytics Report

User Prompt:

Delhi air pollution trends over 10 years

Analytics Summary:

Delhi air pollution trends over the last decade indicate consistent seasonal spikes. Winter months frequently exceed safe AQI levels due to vehicular emissions, crop residue burning, and unfavorable meteorological conditions. Long-term data suggests a gradual increase in average AQI values, highlighting the need for sustained mitigation strategies.